A notice over the sleeping car office in Atlanta reads: "Birthe can be secured here." Democrats with "passive inclinations" are called "Thumbsuckers" by their southern brethren. He who never tastes a single drop of liquor will ner die in the gutter. Who-ver does take a single drop, may. A part of the house in which Stephen A. Douglas taught school at Winchester, Scott county, Illinois, is still standing and is now used as a blacksmith shop. Diamonds have been found in Arizona. One has been sent to a Boston lap-idary, who certifies it to be a brilliant of the purest water, and worth from $300 to

A rural poet indited a sonnet to his sweethcart, entitled "I kissed her subrosa." The compositor knew better tha that, and set it up in printer's Latin—"1 kissed her snub nosa."

A pretty rich young widow was re-garding herself lately at a mirror in her chamber, while for the first time trying on her widow's cap. "Behold!" she exclaimed, "the real cap of liberty."

Some Western churches have adopted the plan of having the collections taken by young ladies of beauty. They look smilingly at a reluctant victim and give him a slight wink. This process al-

A gentleman having just lost his wife visited a friend; and being asked how long he would remain in town, answer-"Oh, for about a fortnight-long enough to spend the honeymoon of my widowhood."

" . on are beautiful and I adore you," said a gentleman to the belle of the evening. "For my part, I hate you, and think you frightful," she retorted. "I believe you, you frank girl. You do tell polite falsehoods, like me."

Bennet, the veteran Herald editor, is failing rapidly in health He takes no interest in anything, and is actually passing into helpless second childhood. His brother editors in New York have magnanimously ceased to abuse him now.

A severe storm at Thibadeaux, ouisiana, blew down a house, killing two men and seriously injuring two others. A little boy was caught in the air and landed three hundred yards away, where he fell uninjured. Upon alighting, he claimed, "I tell you I had a sweet ride."

Here is a beautiful instance of conjugal affection: A married lady in Consecticut recently fell into a river, and would have been drowned except that her cries attracted the attention of her husband, who, mistaking her in the dark for another woman, worked like a beaver to get her out.

Decidedly the eleverest matron in all Europe is the wife of the present king of Demark. Just consider the fine "matches" she has managed to obtain for her children. One daughter is the First Door North Eagle Daug Store future empress of Russia, the other the future queen of England; one of her sons is the king of the Greeks and now the son-in-law of a czar.

Miss Lydia S. Hall is of the right metal. Some years ago the lady made a mission- Miscellan's Adbertisements. ary trip to the Choctawa, and lived for many years ministering to them and civilising the Kansas border ruffians. Alexis was quite overcome at the Boston committee's invitation. The Commercial Bulletin says: "The grand duke his native Russian, as follows: 'Orl ritold bustin yuken sormi legorf butti tel-lu ile blocki hifur Boston. Gityur rumanwiski anlotzer citti bomerz radi, anian olecateazy wilbi downonyer lykea neskeme onah tallak andle."

Within five months the Rev. Mr. Brook has barried his wife, engaged himself to three women, married one of them, was Furnishing Goods, sued for breach of promise by one of the others, got a divorce and married the one who had sued him for the breach of promise, was tried by an ecclesiastical council and suspended from conference, and then went and joined the Campbellite church, and he and his third wife were both baptised. It is almost unnecessary to add that this happened in Indiana.

OPENING A STORE IN A JAIL .- A Duluth journal publishes the following adver-tisement: "New Tailor Shop. John Edwards, a prisoner in the St. Louis county jail, on Ashtabula hill, would infrom the charitable public that a family is deendent upon his labors for support, and he is, therefore, compelled in this public manner to announce that he has opened a tailor shop in the jail, and will be glad to have a share of the patronage of the citizens of Duluth. An exnce of five years in the trade guarantees his ability to give satisfaction, especially in children's garments. Having no rent to pay, his prices are much below ordinary rates."
